[training]

In order to fully understand and master the diverse range of applications of the SANAX system, and to ensure that you gain full benefit in your practice, Desiree Askin (European trained herbalist, natural therapist, and botanical skincare formulator) offers you up to 24 hours of intensive instruction, comprehensive manuals and on-going technical support.

You will receive broad-based training in holistic skin and body therapy as well as mastering the practical aspects of the system. Since training is geared to your unique needs and understanding levels, it is not complete until you are ready to begin practice with your system.

[how do i know it works?]

Don't just take our word for it . . .

Come for a complimentary treatment to see and experience the system for yourself, or arrange for either a SANAX representative or explanation video to come to you.

You are welcome to view some of the before and after shots from clients we have treated over the years, and if you desire, you may contact them for verification.

You may also contact us for the name of a Referee - someone who has been using the SANAX system in their practice and can talk to you about the benefits of the system to their clients and business.
