Liberty & Horse Behavior Home Study Program

"I've started DVD 2 of the new Liberty & Horse Behavior self study program and already wanted to send a horse-size THANK YOU for putting it together! And my horses thank you too."

"I have two completely different horses—one confident and the other who can be pushy except when he is learning or when he is in a new environment. Then he becomes very unconfident! He, in particular, thanks you!! I've already learned a lot about what I was misreading and what I was doing wrong! It's going to take some time for me to be consistent with reading his situation, but the DVD content helps a lot—seeing the demos, along with the real-time explanations is very useful".—Ilona, Level 1 graduate

Featured Disc: Part I, DVD 2

Linda Parelli begins Disc 2 with in-depth information to help you learn to read your horse and bring him into his ideal learning zone. Then watch simulations that will teach you what it takes to deal with Right Brain Invert-Catotonic and Right Brain Extrovert behaviors in horses.

Linda uses her horses, Allure and Remmer, to demonstrate reading horses' body language. With Remmer she shows what it takes to ensure a productive, playful learning session; and with Allure she addresses his confidence as a learner and creates curiosity.

Disc 2 concludes with a workshop where you get to experiment with your new savvy in reading the horse.

Time's Running OUT!

Hurry, Savvy Club members, experience Liberty & Horse Behavior at home for the special price of $499 through September 30, 2006. A savings of $500!

Where Will You Be?

Sue Shoemark, Neil Pye and the new UK team of Lynda Garrad and Nicky Townshend as well as Australia's Alison Bickley, will be manning the Parelli stand at the UK's world-famous Horse of the Year show next week. Catch them at Stand R3D from Wednesday 4th–Sunday 8th October at the National Exhibition Centre in Birmingham. This is Parelli's first appearance with the new team, our new Savvy Club web site, and the latest up-to-date information on Linda & Pat's Natural Horsemanship Celebration at the same venue on the 4th & 5th August 2007. Make a date to come and have all your questions answered, pick up your goodies—FREE DVD—and let the team move you to the next level on your Parelli journey. Where else would you be?

Hotter than hot cakes!

Tickets for Pat and Linda's Sydney Celebration of Natural Horsemanship are flying out of the door at the Australian Parelli Office. The team have had the phones glued to their ears as friends, students and fans of Parelli have been booking their places at the Sydney International Equestrian Centre on the 10th & 11th March 2007. At the last count 40% of places are already gone so don't delay in booking your tickets TODAY! Seating is strictly limited at the SIEC so don't miss out!

Talking of the SIEC, torrential rain and winds of 50km an hour didn't dampen the spirits of the dedicated Parelli team at Sydney's 3 Day Event two weekends ago. Venetia Raymond and Sandra MacPherson ran the stand (including frequent mopping!) and Mel Fleming, 4-Star instructor, led the five strong demo team of Fiona Darling (3-Star Instructor), Louise Campbell (Level 3), Judy Lynch (Level 3) and Lynne Turpie (Level 3) with Stephanie Clark (1-Star instructor in training) as support.

The daily Draw saw some lucky people going home with the NEW Safe Complete Starter Kit (which will be on sale in Horseland shortly) and on Sunday two young girls were thrilled to win tickets to Pat and Linda's March seminar. Dad will have to buy a ticket to come along too! A big THANK YOU to everyone who ensured Parelli made a big splash at this important event.

October Savvy Times

Coming up in the October issue of Savvy Times magazine, Savvy Club members can look forward to an interview with legendary Spanish dressage rider and trainer, Luis Lucio.

"Many horse people know a lot about the horse's body, but not enough about the mind. The Parelli program can help us achieve better results in competition by teaching people how to understand the horse's mind and how to communicate with the horse clearly."—Luis Lucio

The Fusion of Dance and Equestrian Artistry

The Equus Projects, directed by choreographer, JoAnna Mendl Shaw, is a company of professional dancers that has been making performance works for dancers, horses and equestrians for almost 10 years. The Equus dancers are trained with Parelli and work with ridden horses at Liberty. The Equus projects along with 5-Star Instructor, David Lichman will be holding a clinic in Huntington, NY on October 21-22.
